This Course information Booklet is provided to inform you of the specific details of your one day course, e.g;

1. The duration
2. The scope (RSA and RCG)
3. How you will be both taught and assessed (RSA and RCG)
4. Fees and refund policy
5. Rules we require you to follow whilst being trained
6. Terms and conditions
7. Further information on complaints and appeals
8. Communication with BarMax

This Course Information Booklet should be read together with our Student Information Handbook – One Day Courses, which provides more detailed information on our policies and procedures and how they affect you as a student of BarMax for all courses. We encourage you to read this Student Information Handbook and the Course Information Handbook prior to enrolment. Both documents are available on our website www.barmax.com.au (see ‘downloads’).

There are also a few policies at the end of this booklet that you really need to know and understand. Once you have read, and understand the Student Information Handbook, and this course information booklet, you will be asked to complete your enrolment form, provide the required proof of identification and complete and sign an acknowledgement form stating that you understand the details of your course.

1. The duration of the course;

Both the RSA and RCG are taught for a minimum of 6 hours (plus meal breaks). This is a strict requirement by the Office of Liquor Gaming and Racing (OLGR). When you are having a meal or ‘coffee break’ you are required to return to the class when required by the trainer. Should you fail to return to the class at the time required you may be ineligible to complete the training for the day. In that instance you must reschedule your training for another day.
