

Course Brochure – SITHGAM001 - Provide responsible gambling services

BarMax Australia and 1-AAA Barmax are trading names for the registered Training Organisation Tertius Training Pty Ltd (Provider Code 41242).

The course listed below is a single unit of competency course.

Unit of Competency	SITHGAM001 - Provide responsible gambling services This unit describes the performance outcomes, skills and knowledge required to provide responsible gambling services, and information to customers who require assistance with their problem gambling
Mode of delivery of training and assessment	Virtual Classroom

The Course Brochure is the primary means of informing prospective students about the services to be provided in relation to a specific course. This brochure is available in a downloadable PDF for the student to print and review.

This should be read together with our Student Handbook, which provides more detailed information on our policies and procedures and how they affect you as a student of BarMax for all courses.

We encourage you to read the Student Handbook and the Course Brochure prior to registration/enrolment. Both documents are available on our website www.barmax.com.au (see 'downloads').

Expected duration of the course

This course is delivered in a minimum 7.5 hours.

The entry requirements or pre-requisites

There are no academic pre-requisites for this course.

Desktop computer/Laptop with Webcam essential (See below for minimum hardware requirements)

On enrolment the student must provide an electronic copy of their face (passport quality) for their student profile in our Learning Management System (LMS) to identify the student and is visible to the trainer and admin in all communications with the student.

You are required to provide an electronic copy of your Valid Photo ID comprising either:

- a current NSW motor vehicle driver or rider's licence or permit, or a licence or permit issued by another state or territory or under the law of another country.
- a current NSW Photo Card.
- a current proof of age card issued by a public authority of the Commonwealth or of another state or territory; or
- a valid and current Australian or foreign passport.

Pre-Course Homework

For your course, there is a 2-stage process you must complete prior to your scheduled course date.

- Stage 1 – Completion of enrolment, submission of photo id, review of course information, structure of the day and an agreement to our Virtual Classroom Code of Conduct. Once completed your seat is confirmed.

- Stage 2 – Involves a ‘Systems check’ of your equipment (Computer/Laptop and Webcam) to ensure we minimise any problems on the morning of the course. An appointment is made for this as part of stage 1 and involves a 5–10-minute Zoom call to check you have reliable and stable internet. See below for more information re Computer Equipment.

THE ABOVE PROCESS MUST BE COMPLETED A MINIMUM OF 48 HOURS BEFORE YOUR COURSE

Validating Student Identity using Webcam

During this course and in order to validate the identity of the student for whom the final certificate will be issued, our regulators require the provider to assure the identity of the student. This validation is undertaken during the ‘systems check’ in the pre-course homework and throughout the day of the course.

Students are required to be on screen and will be recorded for the duration of the course content.

For the assessment section, photographs will be taken periodically and randomly via your webcam and only whilst the student is logged in and completing a task within the course.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy Skills

If you believe you may require assistance to complete the RCG course due to your Language, Literacy and Numeracy skills please contact our offices on (02) 9211 4110 or email enquiries@barmax.com.au to discuss your training needs.

The assessment requirements to successfully complete the course

Formal Assessments

- Multiple choice - comprises up to 50% multiple choice questions. The student will be advised of any incorrect answers immediately and will be taken back 2 questions where upon student will be presented with a revised question.
- Short answers - comprises 50% or more short answers (maximum 300 characters). Once the assessment is submitted for marking, answers will be reviewed, and the result advised to the student immediately. Students will have three (3) attempts to complete the Short Answers
- Demonstration / Observation Assessment - a practical video presentation of refusing service and asking a patron to leave the premises. This video presentation will be in the form of five (5) short role play scenarios no longer than 45-60 seconds each. Students will have three (3) attempts to complete the Practical Assessment

All assessments are open book and are welcome to use any resource available to them in preparing their assessments.

(The use of the Google/Bing/Safari search function is unreliable and not recommended)

Certificates on completion of the Unit

When you have successfully completed your selected unit of competency, you will be issued a Statement of Attainment – SITHGAM001 Provide responsible gambling services by Tertius Training Pty Ltd, and an Interim certificate issued by Liquor & Gaming NSW.

The interim certificate allows you to work for 90 days on licensed premises. After 90 days, an RCG competency card must be presented to work in any licenced premise. To obtain the RSA competency card, the interim RCG certificate (valid for 5 years) is to be taken to a registered Service NSW office along with 100 points of photo ID to apply. Full instructions on obtaining the competency card are provided on the back face of the interim certificate.

Rules you must follow whilst being trained

BarMax makes every effort to provide an environment suitable for all students to learn and develop their skills and knowledge. To assist in helping achieve this for you and your fellow students, BarMax has the following rules which must be strictly observed.

- Any attendee who arrives late to the specified start time of a face-to-face course will be refused entry into the course. Additionally, a penalty will apply (see schedule of fees to reschedule).
- Students are provided with breaks throughout the course. Students arriving late from the allocated break will be refused re-entry to that course and must arrange to re-sit the entire course. Additionally, a penalty will apply (see schedule of fees to reschedule).

- A student may be refused entry to, or removed from a class for the following reasons:
 - failure to provide current valid Photo ID
 - failure to follow BarMax's or the training venue policies where the course is conducted
 - Failing to adhere to BarMax's or venue's dress requirement - where the student attends any venue such as a club or hotel, the dress requirements of that club or hotel are imposed upon the student. For example: this will normally prohibit the wearing of singlets, micro miniskirts, sandals or thongs, shirts with offensive writing, ripped/torn clothes.
 - Disturbing, causing discomfort, threatening the safety and security of/to other students, staff, patrons or the property of the provider or the venue.
 - If the student is under the influence of alcohol or non-prescription drugs
 - Breaching the laws of the Commonwealth or State.
 - Breaching age requirements for the course.
 - Failure to adhere to the Virtual Classroom Code of Conduct (Click Here)

If the student has been refused entry for any of the reasons above that student may request to reschedule the course (see schedule of fees to reschedule).
